

FAST FACTS FROM THE FEDERAL RESERVE

 Financial Services

Quick answers for frequent FedCash® Services and FedLine® Solutions questions

Call your
Federal Reserve Cash Office located on the Contacts Page
for questions about:

Call the Customer Contact Center (CCC)
at (888) 333-7010
for questions about:

- Cancelling or changing an order.
- Tracking an order that was not received.
- Confirming order status if you receive an error message during the online submittal process.
- Finding help with a missed order deadline.
- Placing an order when internet service or FedLine Solutions are unavailable.
- Identifying the correct carrier option when completing the FedCash Services Request Form.
- Obtaining endpoint information for your FedCash Services Request Form.
- Learning about holiday currency ordering.
- Inquiring about currency or coin transactions or entries posted to your account.

- Requesting access to FedLine Solutions.
- Reporting a performance or access issue with FedLine Solutions.
- Navigating our FRBservices.orgSM website or FedLine Solutions to access reports, order screens, and other information.
- Locating FedCash Services forms on FRBservices.org.
- Assistance managing your FedLine subscribers through the EUAC center.

Find contact information for your local Federal Reserve Cash Office.

Find FedCash forms

How to Handle Contaminated or Mutilated Currency and Coin

Contaminated Currency

With proper packaging, contaminated currency can be returned to your Federal Reserve Cash office. Follow the instructions.

Contaminated Coin

The Federal Reserve does not accept contaminated coin. Follow the Center for Disease Control's guidelines for decontaminating surfaces.

Mutilated Currency

The Federal Reserve does not accept mutilated currency. View instructions on redeeming mutilated currency with the Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

Bent and/or Partial Coin

The Federal Reserve does not accept bent/partial coin. View instructions on redeeming bent/partial coin with the U.S. Mint.