

Canadian Item U.S. Funds Unencoded Cash Letter Form Instructions

When to use this Cash Letter Form

The Canadian Item U.S. Funds Unencoded cash letter form is used to deposit unencoded Canadian items, payable in U.S. funds; the Maker has an account with a Canadian bank payable in U.S. funds.

Canadian items payable in U.S. funds generally will state, somewhere on the face of the item, it's in U.S. funds or American $. Another indication the item is payable in U.S. funds is the number 45 in the MICR line, generally following the account number. In the absences of an indication the item is payable in U.S. funds, it is processed as a Canadian item in Canadian funds.

Cash Letter Forms

Standardized cash letter forms are offered via the Federal Reserve Financial Services web site for your institution's use when sending paper cash letters to the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta at the address noted on the forms. The forms have been standardized, and the layout and information required should be familiar to all experienced users.

The cash letter forms are documents that open as fillable PDFs for your use. These forms can be completed, when opened from the website, or saved to your computer for later use. If you have questions about submitting cash letters or cash items, please refer to Operating Circular #3.

Using a Cash Letter Form

The cash letter forms are accessible on FRBservices.org. Click the "Forms" link in the toolbar, located across the top of the page, and select "Check" to locate the "Cash Letter Forms" section. After selecting the type of cash letter you need, the system will present the options to "Open" or "Save" the form.

"Open" - The selected form will open in a new browser window.

"Save" - This option will allow you to save the form to your hard drive so that you can use it more than once.

Cash Letter Field Description

The Depository institution's routing number (RT), name and address, and preparer information sections are text and/or numeric fields. All required fields, noted with an asterisk, should be entered on the form before it is printed. This allows you to have forms that can be easily read when they reach the Federal Reserve Bank.
