Federal Reserve Banks publish PFMI disclosures for Fedwire® Services

The Federal Reserve Banks have published the Fedwire Funds Service Disclosure under the Principles for Financial Market Infrastructures (PFMI) (PDF) and the Fedwire Securities Service Disclosure under the PFMI (PDF) as required by the Federal Reserve Policy on Payment System Risk (Off-site link).

Among other things, the Federal Reserve Policy on Payment System Risk (PSR policy) (PDF) (Off-site link) sets out the views and related standards of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System regarding the management of risks in financial market infrastructures like the Fedwire Services. Part I of the PSR policy incorporates the risk-management and transparency standards set forth in the PFMI. The Board has also stated that it will be guided by the key considerations and explanatory notes in the PFMI and by the disclosure framework (PDF) (Off-site link) that complements the PFMI in applying part I of the PSR policy to the Fedwire Services.

Questions regarding the disclosures for the Fedwire Services should be directed to WPO.Inquiries@ny.frb.org.

The Fedwire logo, "Fedwire" and "Wired to Deliver" are service marks of the Federal Reserve Banks. A complete list of marks owned by the Federal Reserve Banks is available at FRBservices.org.
