

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY
BUREAU OF THE FISCAL SERVICE
WASHINGTON, DC 20220

October 26, 2016

Financial Institutions Asked to Submit Proposals to Operate Centralized Receivables Service by November 23, 2016

The U.S. Department of the Treasury, Bureau of the Fiscal Service (Fiscal Service), plans to select one financial institution to operate, maintain, expand and improve the government's Centralized Receivables Service (CRS). Fiscal Service will conduct the selection using its financial agent selection process. The financial institution selected shall be a financial agent of the United States.

CRS provides billing, collections, and management services for current, non-tax accounts receivables to federal agencies. The term of the financial agency agreement will start on or about June 1, 2017.

For more information on the CRS program and specific requirements for submitting proposals, please visit the Fiscal Service website.

Proposals must be received no later than November 23, 2016.

If you have questions on the proposal submission process, send them to Fiscal Service by email at CRSFASPSolicitation@fiscal.treasury.gov.
