Congress established a new system of veterans benefits when the United States entered World War I in 1917. The current Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) succeeded the Veterans Administration and has responsibility for providing federal benefits to veterans and their dependents. Headed by the Secretary of Veterans Affairs, VA is the second largest of the 14 Cabinet departments and operates nationwide programs of health care, financial assistance and national cemeteries. The Department of Veterans Affairs issues mortgage backed securities under its Vendee Loan Program.
